

HOGG FAMILY FUN

Governor and Mrs. Hogg moved into the Governor's Mansion in 1891 with their four children: Will, Mike, Tom, and Ima. One of the children's favorite activities was to slide down the banister into the Entry Hall. After an accident to Tom, Governor Hogg nailed tacks into the banister to keep the children from sliding down. The filled nail holes are still visible today.

