The Capitol Visitors Center offers free tours for students of all ages. The middle school tour features interactive exhibits and presentations aligned with TEKS objectives. Through these hands-on activities students will learn about the history of Texas, the Capitol and the General Land Office.

The Tour Features the Following Activities:

Primary Sources: Students explore primary sources of the Republic of Texas.

Gone To Texas: Students play a fast-paced interactive game where their choices will determine if they are successful settlers.

Texas Capitol-Building for the Ages: A new video revealing the unique history, function and architecture of the Capitol.

Here is what teachers have to say about their student's tour experience...
